§ 2 CORPORATE INFORMATION

2.1 Brief analysis of the overall operating conditions of the Company and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) during the reporting period

As global carriers continued to make large-scale investments in the construction of infrastructure network facilities, they sought to explore and set up operations in new technologies, businesses and structures in addition to constantly upgrading their existing networks, in a bid to stay ahead in competition. Leading carriers of China, the United States and Japan were actively driving the progress of 5G technical verification and the formulation of 5G standards, in order to expedite commercial applications on a trial basis. Deployment efforts in relation to the Internet of Things (“IOT”) were also gaining pace, as the market was all set for large-scale applications.

For the nine months ended 30 September 2017, the Company continued to enhance the competitiveness of its products, while going to further depths in the development of the global carriers’ market. In the domestic market, we secured further market shares for core products, such as 4G and optical transmission products, as we actively worked with the big three carriers to support their requirements in network construction and technical evolution. Meanwhile, we also took the lead in passing the second-stage function tests for the national 5G technical verification process. In the international market, we enjoyed stronger approval ratings from high-end customers and a further optimised market profile, due to our persistent focus on populous nations and mainstream carriers and the ongoing increase in our strategic investment. In connection with the consumer business, we sustained fast growth in North America and positive developments in the domestic market on the back of our ability in R&D innovation and global presence. In the IOT sector, we launched our prototype NB-IOT secure chips and accounted for a strong share of the first NB-IOT network construction projects of domestic carriers. Moves to establish our presence in the international market for this sector have also begun, our overall technological edge and leading market position has been reinforced.

For the nine months ended 30 September 2017, the Company reported operating revenue of RMB76.58 billion, representing growth of 7.01% as compared to the previous year which mainly reflected the year-on-year growth in revenue from 4G system products, fixed-line network and bearer systems in the domestic market, handset products in the international markets and home terminal products in the domestic market. Net profit attributable to holders of ordinary shares of the listed company amounted to RMB3.905 billion, representing a year-on-year increase of 36.58%. Basic earnings per share amounted to RMB0.93.

For the next reporting period, the Group will further focus on premium customers and seek consistent enhancement of customer satisfaction. We will persist in maintaining our leadership in technology and continue to increase our investment in the R&D of core products, such as 5G products. Seizing opportunities presented by changing technologies and landscapes in the global telecommunications market, we will make steadfast efforts to enhance our global market position with stronger market shares. On a firm foundation underpinned by high-calibre staff, compliance in operations and internal control, the Group will achieve prudent and sustainable development.

3.2.4.5 Material litigation and arbitration during the reporting period

There was no material litigation or arbitration of the Group occurring during the reporting period. Progress during the reporting period of immaterial litigation and arbitration proceedings occurring prior to the reporting period is set out as follows:

On 20 May 2013, ZTE DO BRAZIL LTDA (“ZTE Brazil”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, received a notice of administrative penalty issued by the tax bureau of Sao Paulo State of Brazil, alleging that ZTE Brazil was not entitled to register and apply for ICMS output tax on the grounds that ZTE Brazil had committed non-compliant acts such as revoking invoices in the course of sales to customers during the period from 2010 to 2011, and therefore was required to make a remedial payment of ICMS tax, accrued interests and a penalty in the aggregate amount of approximately BRL96,448,400 (equivalent to approximately RMB203 million). On 19 June 2013, ZTE Brazil submitted an administrative defense to the level 1 administrative court under the tax bureau of Sao Paulo State, stating that: (1) ZTE Brazil’s entitlement to the ICMS output tax was provable by existing invoices and customers’ statements; (2) on the grounds that the fiscal revenue of Sao Paulo State would not be reduced, ZTE Brazil pleaded for the penalty to be waived pursuant to Section 527. A of Law No. 45.490 of Sao Paulo State; (3) the administrative penalty should be rendered invalid by the fact of duplicated calculation of the amount of fine based on the same rules. On 18 September 2013, ZTE Brazil received the judgement of the level 1 administrative court under the tax bureau of Sao Paulo State, which endorsed the administrative penalty imposed by the tax bureau of Sao Paulo State. On 18 October 2013, ZTE Brazil filed an appeal with the level 2 administrative court under the tax bureau of Sao Paulo State. On 20 July 2017, the level 2 administrative court under the tax bureau of Sao Paulo State ruled to revoke the administrative penalty imposed by the tax bureau of Sao Paulo State. On 28 August 2017, the tax bureau of Sao Paulo State submitted a waiver of appeal rights in writing to the level 2 administrative court under the tax bureau of Sao Paulo State. As such, the litigation procedures of the case were fully closed.

Based on the legal opinion furnished by legal counsels engaged by the Company and the progress of the case, the aforesaid case will not have any material adverse impact on the financial conditions and operating results of the Group for the current period.

The Company has conducted stringent internal assessment of its derivative investments made and has established corresponding regulatory mechanisms and assigned dedicated staff to be in charge thereof. The counterparties with which the Company and its subsidiaries have entered into contracts for derivative investments are organisations with sound operations and good credit standing. We are of the view that the derivative investments made by the Company and its subsidiaries have been closely related to their day-to-day operational requirements and in compliance with relevant laws and regulations.
